AWARD OF THE SILVER STAP.

1. TO 320. The following AWARD is announced.

MELTON, ROBERT C.

FIRST SYRGEANT ES United States Army

Co C; 2d Sn. 502d Inf, 13th Avn Sn. APO US Forces 96215 Awarded: Silver Star

Date ection: 7 February 1966 Theater: Republic of Vietnam

Reason: For gallantry in action: First Sergeant Melton distinguished himself on 7 February 1966 while participating in a company assault on a Viet Cong village near My Cenh. Republic of Vietnam. During the initial attack on the village, First Sergeent Melton courageously moved through intense hostile fire to within fifteen meters of a Viet Cong wachine gun bunker to carry a wounded man to a covered position for treatment. With complete disregard for his personal safety, he returned to the scene of the vicious fighting three additional times to evacuate vasualties. When reinforcemento arrived and began suffering essualties, First Sergoant Welton again moved onto the tattlefield to within ten meters of a hostile automatic measons position to carry a seriously wounded man to safety. Throughout the battle, he exposed himself to intense bostile fire while recovering his wounded commudes, and directing the fires of his men. First Sergeant Welton's actions were instrumental in saving many lives and enabled his company to complete its mission. His unimpeachable valor and devotion to duty in close combat against a numerically superior hostile force were in keeping with the highest traditions of the military service and reflect great credit upon bimself, his unit, and the United States ALTO.

Authority: By direction of the President under the provisions of the Act of Congress, approved 9 July 1918.
